

«How Would We Like to Supervise?»

OCTOBER 2, 2025
2-4 PM (CEST)

- ✓ A workshop supporting diverse
- ✓ approaches to supervising
- ✓ PhD candidates in the arts.

ONLINE WORKSHOP (ENGLISH)

OPEN TO ALL SUPERVISORS & FUTURE SUPERVISORS AT HSLU DFK

WELCOME Vicky Kiefer, PhD Coordinator HSLU DFK

INSTRUCTOR Dr Sarah Tripp, Lecturer, School of Fine Art,
The Glasgow School of Art

FACILITATOR Josie Cockram, Course Leader MA Fine Art (Online),
Falmouth University

GUESTS Dr Maria Fusco, Professor of Interdisciplinary Writing,

Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design, University of Dundee

Dr Laura Guy, PhD Coordinator for Fine Art, The Glasgow School of Art

This online workshop will encourage open discussion about supervising PhD candidates in fine arts, design and film. Whether you have years of supervisory experience or are about to join a supervisory team for the first time, this workshop will enable you to recognise your strengths and the value of your experience. Through group discussions and insights from Maria Fusco and Laura Guy, we will explore themes such as the community surrounding the supervisor and supervisee, how supervisors and supervisees are matched, supervision teams, and the specific challenges of practice-led PhD research. Please join us to explore the roles and parallel journeys of supervisors and supervisees.

Please register here by 14 September 2025: vicky.kiefer@hslu.ch

You will receive further details after registration.