

Exercises in Style

Alistair Dearie, Lotte Gertz, Lorna Macintyre

Exercises in Style brings together work by three artists who share an interest in what art historian Norman Bryson has described as the 'slow, almost geological rhythm' of simple utensils, in contrast to the instant obsolescence of complex technologies. Taking place in Alistair Dearie's pottery studio the exhibition expands the notion of still life through photography, sculptural installations, ceramic objects, prints and painting - and the slow process of building relations between them.

Alistair Dearie graduated from Glasgow School of Art in 1999 and since then he has developed parallel careers as an educator and a potter. He is a principle teacher of art and design at St Ninian's High School in Kirkintilloch and the founder of Dearie pottery.
