

Monday 7 September

Venue: Glasgow School of Art (Reid Building)

8.30 – 9.30 Registration with tea and coffee

9.30 – 10.30 Keynote 1: Prof Guy Julier

10.30 – 12 Parallel sessions 1

1a: Glasgow, urban spaces and cultural memory	1b: Inscribed artefacts: Writing, drawing, recording	1c: Multisensorial culture
--	---	-----------------------------------

12 – 12.45 Lunch

12.15 – 12.45 Materiality of print: The Glasgow School of Art letter-press case-room (tbc)

12.45 – 2.45 Parallel sessions 2

2a: Beyond the canon: Amateurs, outsiders, enthusiasts	2b: Making, recollecting and remediating architectural sites	2c: Design processes and Pedagogy	2d: Carpet Makers of Distinction: Examining Relationships Between Collecting and Designing at Stoddard-Templeton (Session in the Mackintosh Furniture Gallery)
---	---	--	---

2.45 -3.45 Poster presentations I

3.45 – 4.15 Tea break

4.15 – 5.45 Parallel sessions 3

3a: Hands-on making, Community Dialogue and Social Protest	3b: Geography, Visual Culture and Memory	3c: Innovative Pedagogy in Art Education	3d: Dusting off the Art School archive – Contemporary uses for old documents
---	---	---	---

5.45 – 6.15 Keynote 2: Prof Esther Leslie

6.15 – 7.30 Reception

7.30 – 9.15 Dinner

Tuesday 8 September

Venues: Glasgow School of Art (Reid Building) + Centre for Contemporary Arts

9.30 – 11 Parallel sessions 4

4a: Interrogating practices of making and collecting: Stickleby Museum / Syracuse University	4b: Designing Selves and Communities	4c: Digital Materialities: Time, place and perception
---	---	--

11 – 12 Keynote 3: Ian Helliwell

12 – 12.45 Lunch

12.45 – 14.45 Parallel sessions 5

5a: Histories in the Making: Interpreting the heritage of Kingston School of Art for multiple audiences	5b: Reading History and the Body	5c: Memory, Materiality and Emotion	5d: Craft, Tradition and Cultural Memory
--	---	--	---

14.45 – 15.30 Poster presentations II + Film screening

15.30 – 16 Tea break

16 – 17.30 Parallel sessions 6

6a: Historical artefacts and representations	6b: DIY Crafts	6c: Photographic objects and processes	6d: Studio Culture
---	-----------------------	---	---------------------------

17.30 – 18.30 Concluding remarks: Prof Tim Ingold

18.30 – 18.45 Closing and farewell