In search of Place BUILDING the EVIDENCE

Place is one of the most multi-layered and multi-purpose words in our language."

ALESSANDRO DELL'ORTO

The Ubiquity of Place

Place is everywhere, places are all around us. Everywhere is some place. Place is a general construct, a concept that gives everywhere some qualities, some specificity whether cultural, social, environmental or economic. The city of Glasgow fascinates and intrigues – its rise, fall and reinvention, its history and modernity, its reputation as 'Red Clydeside' and its powerful architecture all give the city a myth and a legend."
